Mr. George Bush, Director
Central Intelligence Agency,
Langley, Virginia

Dear Mr. Bush:

This is a belated note to thank you again for coming and speaking to The Overseas Writers. All of the feedback that I have received has been positive, and I would like you to know that your appearance was much appreciated. If you felt you received a few provocative questions, it was only because it was a "full and frank" exchange of views. Again my personal thanks.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Daniloff,
President of the Overseas Writers
